1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff and cross-defendant William James Mitchell (“Plaintiff”) complains that
4 defendant and cross-complainant Twin Galaxies, LLC (“Twin Galaxies”) breached the parties’
5 settlement agreement by stating to the public that Plaintiff was still banned from Twin Galaxies’
6 competitive leaderboards after the parties resolved their dispute. [REDACTED]

23 Accordingly, Plaintiff motion should be denied and Twin Galaxies should be awarded its fees.

24 II. FACTS

25 A. Brief statement of procedural history.

26 Plaintiff is a public figure who is known for his videogame world records including world
27 records in the Donkey Kong and Pacman videogames. Twin Galaxies is intergalactically
28 recognized as the foremost arbiter of videogame scores and maintains a leaderboard for high scores

1 in Donkey Kong and other videogames like Pacman. Plaintiff had scores on Twin Galaxies’
2 leaderboards for Donkey Kong and Pacman. Plaintiff’s Donkey Kong high score was challenged
3 by Jeremy Young in August 2017. Twin Galaxies determined that Mr. Young’s challenge to
4 Plaintiff’s score was valid and on April 12, 2018 struck Plaintiff’s Donkey Kong score and his
5 Pacman score from its leaderboards and banned Plaintiff from participating in its competitive
6 leaderboards for all games. [Tashroudian Decl., ¶ 3.]

7 Plaintiff filed this suit for defamation against Twin Galaxies in April 2019 as his response.
8 Twin Galaxies cross-complained and filed a special motion to strike the complaint which was 9 denied, appealed, and resulted in a published decision. The case was remitted from the appellate
10 court in February 2022 and the parties litigated this case with zeal through January 2024 when the 11 matter settled by virtue of the agreement and statement attached to the declaration of Kristina Ross
12 as Exhibit A (the “Settlement Agreement” and the “Statement”). [Tashroudian Decl., ¶ 4.]

13 As part of the settlement, Twin Galaxies reinstated Plaintiff’s disputed Donkey Kong score
14 and the Pacman score but to a historical archive on its website. Importantly, none of Plaintiff’s
15 scores were restored to any of Twin Galaxies’ current and active leaderboards – neither his Donkey
16 Kong score nor his Pacman score. [REDACTED]

III. ARGUMENT

A. [REDACTED]

i. Legal Standard to determine the meaning of ambiguous contract terms.

“Although a judge hearing a [CCP] § 664.6 motion may receive evidence, determine disputed facts, and enter the terms of a settlement agreement as a judgment [citations], nothing in section 664.6 authorizes a judge to create the material terms of a settlement, as opposed to deciding what terms the parties themselves have previously agreed upon.” (Osumi v. Sutton (2007) 151 Cal.App.4th 1355, 1360; accord Bowers v. Raymond J. Lucia Companies, Inc. (2012) 206 Cal.App.4th 724, 732.) As such, “[t]he power of the trial court under Code of Civil Procedure section 664.6 ... is extremely limited. [¶] ... The court is powerless to impose on the parties more restrictive or less restrictive or different terms than those contained in their settlement agreement.” (Hernandez v. Board of Education (2004) 126 Cal.App.4th 1161, 1176.)

In deciding what terms the parties have agreed upon, the judge may consider extrinsic evidence when the contract language is ambiguous. (See Winet v. Price (1992) 4 Cal.App.4th 1159, 1165; see also Cal. Code Civ. Proc. §1856(g) (parol evidence admissible to explain an extrinsic ambiguity or otherwise interpret the terms of the agreement).)

1            “If the terms of a promise are in any respect ambiguous or uncertain, it must be interpreted
2 in the sense in which the promisor believed, at the time of making it, that the promisee understood
3 it.” (Cal. Civ. Code §1649.) The interpretation must give effect to the mutual intention of the 4 parties as it existed at the time of contracting. (Cal. Civ. Code §1636.) “A contract may be
5 explained by reference to the circumstances under which it was made, and the matter to which it
6 relates” (Cal. Civ. Code §1647.) “[T]he language of a contract should be interpreted most strongly
7 against the party who caused the uncertainty to exist.” (Cal. Civ. Code §1654.)

B. [REDACTED]

The same facts support the argument that Twin Galaxies did not breach the agreement by telling Karl Jobst that Plaintiff was still banned. Plaintiff admits that the communication with Mr. Jobst was not made until after the Statement was published so there was no premature disclosure to Mr. Jobst. [REDACTED]

The balance of Plaintiff's argument that Twin Galaxies breached the Settlement Agreement [REDACTED] relies on pure conjecture. [REDACTED]

1 These allegations are unfounded and meant only to incite ire against Twin Galaxies. Plaintiff
2 cannot prove that any confidential information was disclosed so he postulates that it was based on
3 the timing of Mr. Jobst's video and nothing else. Indeed, Twin Galaxies had nothing to do with
4 Mr. Jobst's video. [See Hall Decl., ¶¶ 4-5.] This court should disregard Plaintiff's argument as it
5 is supposition and not fact.

6 C. Plaintiff's argument that Twin Galaxies is selling products referencing cheating is a
7 red-herring and hypocritical.

8 Plaintiff complains that Twin Galaxies is selling merchandise on its website but does not
9 show how that information is relevant to the instant dispute. The merchandise sold on the website
10 is similar in nature and character to merchandise Plaintiff has been selling for years which 11 reference and relate to the claims in this suit. [Hall Decl., ¶¶ 6-7.] Plaintiff brings this issue up to 12 again incite ire despite its irrelevance and his hypocrisy.

13 What Plaintiff's complaints about the merchandise show is his insistence to curb Twin 14 Galaxies' right to freedom expression and commerce. Plaintiff takes every opportunity to try to 15 shut down Twin Galaxies speech and this part of his motion is no exception. He needs to stop.

16 D. Plaintiff's attorney's fees request is defective because his counsel does not lay a 17 foundation to support her hourly rate of $375.00.

18 The burden is on the party seeking attorney's fees to prove that the fees it seeks are
19 reasonable. (Gorman v. Tassajara Development Corp. (2009) 178 Cal.App.4th 44, 98.) Plaintiff's
20 counsel Kristina Ross has failed to lay a foundation to support her hourly rate.

21 Ms. Ross testified in her declaration in support of this motion at Paragraph 9 about the 24
22 hours she spent on the motion and the related motion to seal. But she does not testify to the 23 reasonableness of her rate. That is, she does not state facts about how many years of experience
24 she has, the type of experience she has, nor does she state facts about other fee awards she has 25 received. Without testimony on the reasonableness of her rate, the request is fatally defective and 26 Plaintiff cannot meet his burden to prove the reasonableness of his fees. His fees request must be
27 denied accordingly.

E. Twin Galaxies should be awarded attorney’s fees of $10,000 to oppose this motion.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Twin Galaxies respectfully submits that if it is determined to be the prevailing party on this motion, it should be awarded $10,000.00 in fees. [Tashroudian Decl., ¶¶ 15-16.]

IV. CONCLUSION

Twin Galaxies respectfully submits that Plaintiff’s motion should be denied based on the foregoing. Twin Galaxies should be reimbursed its fees of $10,000.00 expended to defend against Plaintiff’s unnecessary motion.

Respectfully submitted,
