6. Offences and recoverable transactions

We have conducted enquiries and investigations in respect of the Bankrupt's property and examinable affairs, primarily aimed at determining any actual or potential avenues of recovery for the benefit of creditors.

We, as Trustees in Bankruptcy of the bankrupt estate have a right to:

- report the Bankrupt for offences;
- recover transactions that were unfair, uncommercial or preferential (referred to as voidable transactions); and
- sell these rights to pursue voidable transactions to a third party.

6.1. Offences

Information pertaining to types of offences a bankrupt could commit are provided in the attached information sheet for creditors.

To date, our investigations have not identified any offence under the Act by the Bankrupt. Should any such offence be identified, they will be reported to AFSA accordingly.

Dear Colleagues,

William James Mitchell v Karl Jobst | District Court of Queensland proceeding no. 1075/24 (Proceeding)

As it now stands, our client is liable for payment of the total sum of $990,945.57 (the Judgment Debt) to your client, calculated as follows.

Damages for non-economic loss	$300,000.00
Plus interest on the above amount	$34,668.50
Plus aggravated damages	$50,000.00
Plus interest on the above amount	$5,778.08
Plus costs	$600,498.99
Total	$990,945.57

Our client does not have the financial means to satisfy the Judgment Debt.

In summary, our client's financial position is as follows.

1. Our client has a 50% interest in the property located at Pallara QLD 4110 (the Pallara Property). The Pallara Property is our client's principal place at which he resides at with his wife and child.
2. Our client has obtained 3 property appraisals for the Pallara Property, which show the average valuation of the Pallara Property to be $1,298,333.33. Copies of the property appraisals are attached.
3. The Pallara Property is the subject of a mortgage with Commonwealth Bank which secures two loans with approximately a total of $1,033,338.46 outstanding on both loans. Accordingly, our client's equity in the Pallara Property totals approximately $132,497.44. Copies of the most recent loan account statements issued from Commonwealth Bank are attached.
4. Our client has a 50% interest in the property located at Richlands, QLD 4077 (the Richlands Property). The Richlands Property is jointly owned by our client and his wife.
5. Our client has obtained 3 property appraisals for the Richlands Property, which show the average valuation of the Richlands Property to be $614,166.67. Copies of the property appraisals are attached.

6. The Richlands Property is the subject of a mortgage with Commonwealth Bank which secures two loans with approximately $369,042.05 outstanding in both loans in total. Accordingly, our client's equity in the Richlands Property totals approximately $122,562.31. A copy of the most recent loan account statements issued from Commonwealth Bank are attached.
7. Our client is a shareholder of a company, Karl Jobst Gaming Pty Ltd ACN 646 882 939. In this regard, our client's accountant has advised that:
 - a. the company has traded at a loss and is expected to do so for a period of time;
 - b. there are no fixed contracts with any customers, nor is there any trail income that is generated by the company; and
 - c. the net assets of the company as at 29 April 2025 is negative $27,304.99 and therefore the shares in the company are expected to have no or nominal value.
8. Other than his share of the equity in the Pallara Property and the Richlands Property, our client has no assets or cash on hand.
9. Our client owes $8,449.18 on a Commonwealth Bank credit card and $3,774.35 on an American Express credit card. Copies of the most recent credit card statements issued are attached.
10. Our client owes our firm in excess of $25,000.00 in respect of his legal fees.

Clearly, our client does not have the financial means to satisfy the Judgment Debt, and considers he has no choice but to declare bankruptcy.

However, our client is genuine in saying that he would like to settle the Judgement Debt before your client incurs further legal costs which will not be able to be recovered from our client.

All that said, our client is prepared to pay to your client an amount of $300,000.00 in full and final settlement of the Judgment Debt to be paid within 48 hours of the parties executing of a Deed of Settlement and Release.

In the event your client is not minded to accept our client's offer and our client is forced into bankruptcy, we consider your client is likely to recover less than the amount of our client's offer noting our client's financial position outlined above and that, if for no other reason, the trustee's costs incurred will be recovered in priority to payment of any creditors.

Please let us have your written response to our client's offer by 4pm on Tuesday, 6 May 2025 after which time it will lapse and our client will place himself into bankruptcy.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Colleagues,

WILLIAM JAMES MITCHELL v KARL JOBST
DISTRICT COURT OF QUEENSLAND AT BRISBANE PROCEEDING NO. 1075 OF 2024

- 1 We refer to your correspondence to us of 1 May 2025 containing an offer.
- 2 Our client is not inclined to accept the offer.
- 3 Furthermore, in order to properly consider any offer, our client would require your client provide more complete information in relation to his financial position, unredacted and on oath.
- 4 In relation to the information provided with your client's offer, we note that firstly, your offer refers to three appraisals each in respect of the relevant properties. However, you only provided two in respect of each property that actually provide an indication of the value of your client's properties. That is, the lengthy QRealty documents do not appear to include any appraisal at all in respect of the likely value of each property. Further, in light of that it would appear that the valuation figures given in your correspondence have been skewed downwards. If there is a third appraisal in respect of each property that actually gives a valuation please provide those appraisals to us.
- 5 Secondly, while your correspondence indicates that your client has limited financial means and no liquid assets, your client's offer includes a promise to pay $300,000 within 48 hours of executing a deed of settlement. It is not clear from the financial records provided how your client intends to raise or source that money. In fact, from the information provided in your correspondence it appears that he should not be able to do so at such short notice. Our client will not accept funds except from legitimate sources. As such he requires your client to disclose on oath the source of the funds that he proposes to pay to our client.

6 In any event considering the scale of the debt and the conduct of your client over the course of the last four to five years in respect of our client, his offer is not acceptable to nor capable of acceptance by our client. Your client's offer is rejected but our client is prepared to consider more reasonable offers.

Yours faithfully,

Please view the above tweet. I am sorry for wasting your time again if this is just considered a 'public comment' however on it's face it appears to be the threat of legal action against me for alleged offences during the bankruptcy proceedings. This is obviously a very serious matter as 1. I would like to know if I have done anything illegal during this process, and 2. I do not wish further legal action.

Please confirm if I have done anything illegal. Please confirm if this threat is just a public comment or if it considered enforcement action.

Thanks.

Dear Karl,

Thank you for your email.

We acknowledge your concerns regarding this post.

Please note, the duties of a Trustee in Bankruptcy include investigating and reporting alleged misconduct, as identified. We are not aware of the "serious illegal activity" referenced by Mr Mitchell, nor the grounds in which he would commence proceedings.

We are in contact with Mr Mitchell's solicitors in respect of his allegations so they may be dealt with appropriately in the bankrupt estate.

Should you feel aggrieved due to the conduct of Mr Mitchell, you may wish to raise the matter with the Australian Financial Security Authority (AFSA) or seek independent legal advice.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards,

Good morning Karl,

Further to your email and our discussion on same, please be advised the only relevant correspondence issued to the Petitioning Creditor's solicitor was the previously provided correspondence in the attached.

I am not aware of a response received for same.

Further to the above, after your concerns raised on your email of 15 December 2025, I did have a brief phone call with the solicitor raising the further comments made by their client and requesting again that information on any misconduct be provided however no response was given.

Apologies for the delay in my response.

If you would like to discuss further, please advise a suitable time tomorrow afternoon after 2PM.

Hi Karl,

Thanks for circulating the draft script. I have highlighted what words I am concerned with.

Sam has also had an opportunity to review the script and has relayed to me that he is concerned any statements that are clearly inaccurate (such as Billy having 0% chance of winning).

Naturally, our preference is that you change these words in order to mitigate the chance of you receiving a further concerns notice.

I'm still in court and will be for the rest of the afternoon, so won't be able to speak with you, in the event you would like to discuss.

MILLS OAKLEY

EXHIBIT 19 – 2022 GOFUNDME DESCRIPTION

Hello you Absolute Legends,

My name is Karl Jobst and I'm a youtuber who often reports on video game cheaters. Last year, Billy Mitchell, star of The King of Kong and proven video game cheater, sued me for defamation claiming damages of $450,000. In the past year alone, this lawsuit has cost almost $200,000 to defend, and will cost at least another $100,000 before it's over.

The situation is already crazy, but has since gotten much worse as Billy Mitchell has sent me another defamation lawsuit for another $450,000. So that would mean I will need to defend two lawsuits at the same time, both being extremely expensive. But then it gets even worse because Billy is threatening me with even more lawsuits.

These lawsuits are unhinged and it is highly likely Billy will ultimately lose, but until we go to trial it requires a lot of money to deal with. I would appreciate any help that you are able to provide, as this affects not only me but my family as well. Obviously it's bad enough to attack me when I've done nothing wrong, but to injure them as well takes things to another level.

Naturally, the more money I am able to raise, the better my legal defence will be. That's just the way it works. If and when I defeat Mitchell in court, he will likely have to pay back a lot of the costs that I incurred. I will use that money to host a grand gaming tournament in his honour.

I appreciate all of the support!

-Karl

Our Ref: RJM:KC:220082

OUR CLIENT: WILLIAM MITCHELL
KARL JOBST - YOUTUBE PUBLICATION ENTITLED "I CHEATED IN A SPEEDRUN AND I NEED TO COME CLEAN"

We act for William (Billy) Mitchell.

This is a concerns notice for the purposes of section 14 Defamation Act Qld 2005.

Background

On 13 September 2021 our client commenced a claim against you for defamation damages in respect to the publication of a video on the digital platform YouTube on or about 26 May 2021.

On 10 April 2022 you posted on the web a video entitled Disgraced Gamer Billy Mitchell Accused of Extortion which is the subject of a concerns notice sent to you on 20 April 2022.

Further Publication

On 7 May 2022 you posted on the web a further video entitled I Cheated in a Speed Run and I need to Come Clean which read relevantly as follows:

I needed to harness the power of the greatest gamer that ever lived.

You're familiar with Billy Mitchell, world video game champion. He could probably do it. So I gotta find a way to harness his power and I think I found a way.

That's right we are going to cheat.

("the words").

Identification

Mr Mitchell was identified in the publication by his name.

The Imputations

The words in their ordinary and natural meaning meant and were understood to mean that:

- 1 Billy Mitchell is a person who defrauds, deceives or tricks other people and is a swindler;
- 2 Billy Mitchell is guilty of fraudulently hoodwinking so as to obtain unfair advantage when competing in video games.

The words and the imputations are untrue and are grossly defamatory.

Extent of the Publication

The video has been viewed by a substantial number of people and an extensive number of comments have been posted on your Youtube page.

Serious Harm

Section 10A of the Defamation Act at the time of your publication requires Mr Mitchell to establish that your publication has caused, or is likely to cause, serious harm to his reputation. By reason of the combination of the inherent tendency of the imputations and their actual impact on the substantial number of people to whom they were communicated the serious harm element of the cause of action is made out.

As you know, you are entitled to offer to make amends in accordance with the provisions of the Defamation Act 2005 (Qld).

Yours faithfully

Dear Colleagues,

William James Mitchell v Karl Jobst

We refer to your correspondence of 7 November 2022.

With respect, your correspondence clearly misunderstands the basis of our client's recent publication and misstates the words used by him. Our client does not say a second defamation proceeding has been commenced, rather that proceedings were sent to him. That is a factual statement having regard to your correspondence of 10 May 2022. At no point in time has your client withdrawn the threat of commencing the proceeding foreshadowed in your correspondence of 10 May 2022.

In answer to your second query, no, our client does not have any knowledge about the person or persons who emailed your firm. Our client has instructed us that he would never, nor has he, encouraged that type of behaviour.

Yours faithfully

EXHIBIT 27 – AUGUST 20, 2023 VIDEO

Mr Mitchell was identified in the publication by his name.

The Imputations

The words in the ordinary and natural meaning meant and were understood to mean that:

- 1 Billy Mitchell, to help him in his defamation claim against Twin Galaxies, is prepared to blackmail a witness about whom Mitchell has obtained sensitive and damaging information.
- 2 Billy Mitchell has attempted to extort false evidence from a potential witness in Mitchell's defamation claim against Twin Galaxies.
- 3 Bill Mitchell is guilty of extortion.

The words and the imputations are disgraceful, untrue and are grossly defamatory of Mr Mitchell.

K Karl Jobst

Billy Mitchell, the disgraced Donkey Kong player who was caught cheating and lying multiple times, continues to use the legal system as a weapon against those who speak out against him. This gofundme has been created in order to help his current victims afford legal defences.

Any money raised will be used to support David Race, the best Pac-Man player in the world. Jeremy Young, the person who originally discovered that Mitchell's performances were created on MAME. And Jeff Harrist, the owner of donkeykongforum.com, the current Donkey Kong high score leaderboards. If there are any funds left over they will be used to help Twin Galaxies in their current fight with Mitchell. Funds will be spent entirely on legal fees and lawyer costs.

All supporters will get access to regular video updates from me where I will cover all of the legal updates and delve a bit deeper into each lawsuit. All supporters will receive proof of payment and confirmation of where any money was spent. Money will be sent via bank transfer once the beneficiaries have provided me with a bill from their lawyer.

My name is Karl Jobst. I am speedrunner and gaming journalist from Australia.

Right. And that GoFundMe that Mr Jobst started was to raise funds for your defence of Mr Mitchell's claim, wasn't it?---The -- uh -- Mr -- I'm sorry, read -- say that again?
35 Sorry. The GoFundMe was set up to raise -- by Mr Jobst -- to raise funds to support

Okay. If we go to page 3. You'll see -- you'll have to zoom in, just above the share tab there. That amount, 55 -- can you read that amount, Mr Race, A$55,765 raised?---Yes, I see that.

5 Is that around the amount you understand was raised from this GoFundMe?---It was probably close to that, yes.

Okay. Thank you. And was all of that money -- that 55 thousand-odd dollars -- was that provided to you in defence of your claim of -- from Mr Mitchell?---I would say 10 probably most of it was. The -- the initial -- at least, in my perspective -- or my understanding is that this GoFundMe was set up to help victims -- not just me -- but it

Hey dude, hope you're well. I needed to ask, were you serious when you offered to help me in my fight against Billy Mitchell? 3:32 PM

Yes 7:11 PM

Would you mind if my assistant talked to you directly, so we could get some organization going? If so, email? Something else? 10:18 PM

It's really not just to mess with him, it is just that the best defense ends up being harder for him. My strategy does ultimately change though if I dont have your support because I dont have the money to do everything I could.

That's why I wanted to run things by you because with your help I can do what I think is best and get the best defense.

Totally fine talking to your assistant or doing whatever you like

I have a meeting with my lawyer tomorrow to respond to Billy's threat 10:57 PM

Got it. Hm this might get complicated.

If I involve my lawyers to check things, which makes sense, they're probably going to start looking into the case. If nothing else, just to make sure my money's getting used right.

ok i'll get you connected right away then, at least then someone more organized than me is in the loop

Im pretty savvy about it dude. I am completely open to giving you whatever you need. And just knowing I have your support you can trust me to do the right thing. 11:00 PM

Sounds good :) 11:02 PM

Either you can put your trust in me and I can just update you. Or if you like I can fill in your or your lawyer about what I do before I do it 11:02 PM

I'll see what my people recommend, but instinctively, I feel like providing passive support and letting you use your savvy will both have the best impact, and be less of a long term drag on me 11:04 PM

Yeah I dont want to take up your time lol. You have more important things to spend your energy. When my lawyer responds I will send you everything here 11:05 PM

Hey man, just letting you know that I have been officially sued by Billy Mitchell. I wanted to have a chat with you about what you would like to do. I know you made an offer to help but I don't want to put any pressure on you or force you to go through with that. I can do a gofundme to try to cover the costs. Did you want me to launch that? 3:14 PM

Hi! Sorry to hear that, and yes I intend to follow through.

I don't have a lot of experience doing this, so I don't know what way is the easiest 10:21 AM

I suppose a gofundme could work! I could talk to my people and see what they think, but nobody there really has any experience with this specific situation either :) 10:22 AM

The gofundme was just for your sake if you didnt want to cover the costs. It depends if you want the positive press or not for helping hehe. People would know about it 10:22 AM

Hi Lisa,

Thank you so much for reaching out. Hope you are well.

Billy's lawyer has made contact with me and my lawyer is currently drafting a formal response. Once I have responded I will provide you with all of the papers including Billy's original notice, my response, and any relevant invoices.

When I spoke with Notch he seemed to believe I was responsible enough to make reasonable decisions in relation to my defense, but please let me know if you would like any oversight before any decisions are made. Otherwise if you would like to remain hands off I can just provide you with any bills from my lawyer.

I really appreciate the help!

Hi Karl,

My name is Lisa and I work as an assistant to Markus Persson (Notch), he told me about you and how you're being sued by Billy Mitchell. He told me he wants to help you and pay all of your legal costs.

So, I'm wondering, have Billy's lawyers contacted you yet and what is the status of this matter?

Please let us know how to help.

Best regards,

Hope you are doing well. Please find attached Billy's original notice, my response, Billy's response, my lawyer's cost agreement, and an invoice. The invoice total was $3712.50 AUD. I have asked my lawyer to not respond to Billy's most recent letter.

Please let me know if there is anything you need. I have paid the invoice already, so if the offer still stands to help with the payments I can take them directly. I have a USD account located in the US if that's easiest.

Hi again,

As Notch said you can make your own decisions together with your lawyer regarding this and how you would like to proceed, however I would appreciate it if you would send the things you mentioned above(all of the papers including Billy's original notice, your response, and any relevant invoices) as well as other documentation that might come up. Just so that we know what we are financing and for us to know how the case is proceeding.

Hi Karl,

Sorry to hear that Billy hasn't given up yet, but I talked to Markus and he's happy to continue helping you with this.

I think it would be a good idea for us to pay directly to your Lawyer instead, then it will be easier for us to declare where the money is going to.

What's the easiest, that you send us the invoices and we'll pay them? Have you already paid the invoice that's attached in this email?

Hi Lisa,

I hope you have been well.

Please find attached a new invoice.

Unfortunately Billy Mitchell has lodged an official complaint in the District court of QLD and wants to take this issue to trial. I am currently working with my lawyers in drafting my defence. I have attached all relevant new documents.

Given that this issue will be extending longer than I anticipated I am also organizing some other funding to help with this. At the moment help from Notch is truly appreciated but I don't expect or want him to pay for everything.

Let me know if you need anything. Also please let me know if you'd prefer to pay directly to my lawyer's account instead of to me.
